

Sermon Reflection Questions

“But the Fruit of the Spirit is...Joy” (1st Peter 1:3-9)

May 22, 2022

How have you struggled with lasting joy at the heart level? Where do you usually search for joy?

How does the gift of a new faith (vs. 3: “a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead”) give you hope and joy in this life?

How does Tim Keller’s definition of biblical joy help deepen your understanding of it in your own life? “delight in God and his salvation for the sheer beauty and worth of who He is” (Tim Keller)

How does the gift of a new future (in Christ) give you hope and joy as you face difficult circumstances?
